

THE GATHERING OF THE SON

Now I speak the truth, and to those who have ears to hear, let it be known; a clarification of My Being in this wonderful and righteous eternal NOW.

There is ONE and it is I. From before the foundation of the earth, it has always been I, The Only Begotten Son.

When you witness that you are gathered in the Son , you are aware that I am ONE and We are ONE. You now see that we, as One are earth's sustainers and providers. You know that the whole of creation expectantly receives the daily manifestation of the Son's presence; whether it be sunshine or rain, barley or wheat, healing or resurrection. All these manifestations express Our life. I am all good; all life, come now.

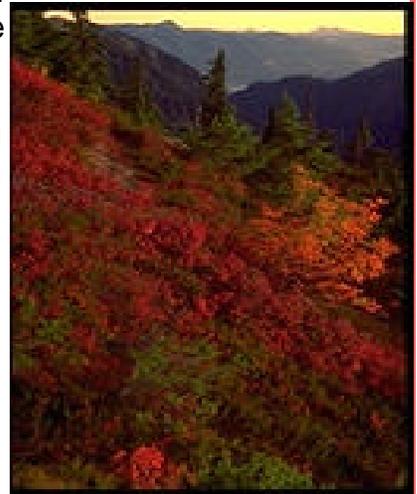

The Son is complete and whole. We are here as the love of the Father, without reliance upon any future. We are the heavenly now, that is Lord in all men and all manifestation, (All Creation) and We dwell in all men in risen presence. (Each man in the love of the Father awakening in his own order)

Let it be witnessed We are gathered in One, the richness of the new creation. Come and acknowledge your crown, Lord ,My Son and be known to Yourself as I know You. Come and be the seed of the harvest; be the blossom and the fruit of the new creation. Come and be the sun and moon and the warmth of earth. Be the twinkle in the eyes of every creature.

It is more wonderful to give than to receive, as you know. Come and be the giver of life to all, as we uncover that which Father has provided.

To those to whom I have appeared, I am the Only Begotten. We are One; Son of the most high.

We are One in Heaven and in Earth; One in the present, past and future; today being all there is.

We are One on this side of the river and that side of the river; One side being all there is. We are One in the ever present glorious Here and Now.

We do the will of Father for we are His will.

Now, is there any reason to wait? The radiant risen Son, awakened in the glorious presence of Father is come, and is instantly and always about Father's business. The Son is Captain of a mighty vessel, a new world on the move.

We plant and harvest now, and speak the Word of Life. We are a humble, obedient Son, called and risen with Heaven in our eyes and the trumpet far behind. The Word of the Lord is within, and we are gathered at the head of the mast in Christ, as we have always been from before time began. Who are we? He hath made us ONE. We are One Life.

We plant and harvest now, speaking the Father's Word. We look for no other to come for We are here in the flesh; a loving army of One; Lord Jesus Christ.

We bid you come now, for you are in Him . You Know you are called and are chosen and in your depths; know you are married. Wait no longer, for Mercy and Grace must have her children. Be born fully matured and be the expression of the One.

Behold, glory and honor, mercy and truth; the Lord Jesus Christ is come.

AMEN
