

IN RESURRECTION, WE WALK THE EARTH

Now that you have risen in His likeness, you have left the weight of the world you have carried. You are free and have left all that is not light.

"Hear me now. Will you hear? I say: I Am God. Do you love to hear Me say, I Am God? I Am God. See everything snap to order when I say, I Am God."

"When I go forth, all things are at My pleasure. To My left and to My right they all please Me, and I walk on a lighted pathway."

"If you feel low or down, be alert to hear Me say, I Am God, for in these words, I breath life into My Creation."

"We arose and now we go forth throughout creation comforting the lions. Please be still mist of My Garden, every heart so loved." "At My Word, Creation, you are a sea of glass; silent, still, without a ripple; calm beyond measure. Behold, I am with you My people, and your peace is My testimony of salvation."

"Yeah, I have ripped out the ugly of your creation, and have established your feet upon the great sea of glass. Your word is the word of peace and calm that cannot be broken, for you have found your home. You have entered the Heavenly Kingdom of God. There is no greater peace, comfort and beauty in My mind and heart than My Kingdom. This is why you are established on and as the great sea of glass. You are as a rock, immovable, strengthened in your radiant peace. "

"Speak peace My beloved, peace on earth, good will toward men, for they need to hear your word and see and feel your presence.”

“I bind you lions of earth in eternal rest, I Am; and I have risen in the hearts of My Sons. Their word is My word, for we speak as ONE.”“This is the day men have longed to see. It is no less than the day of forever, the day of the Lord.”

“You feel the newness of the hour, the great new creation, where love does prevail in power. Feel it now for I Am love. I Am resurrected, unlimited love.”

“I have taken away the old, and replaced it with the all new.”

“Do not mistake My words for I Have spoken plainly. Like a great surgery, I have extricated you into Myself, into the place where there is no lack of My presence. I have promised it and I have performed it.”

Amen & Amen
