

In The Flow Of My Kingdom

Today we dwell in Him.

There is no crimp in the hose of Salvation for it's flowing freely to all men.

Like a mighty avalanche, He has poured Himself upon creation; loving and blessing and wooing. He is that free gift of life, abundant life.

Within each of us, we may hear the Holy Spirit speak that we are not to be afraid. Look not to the future, but look only to the Savior, the free gift of His presence; Who is come with absolute blessings and complete liberty. Do not look out there, but look inside where He is; where all things are already made new.

"I have set you free my children, and you are free indeed. Every man is as free as he finds himself in Me, and as free as he will allow others to be free. You have received the promise, the absolute fullness of My presence, and all that I am. This is your first love, My salvation. I am the rapturous day of Jubilee. Now I would speak plainly to you. I am everything whatsoever you may expect or think and it is all within for I am in You. I am alpha and omega, the answer in every possible way. I have hidden you within Me, where there is no sweeter

music in all My Father's House. Now that you have prepared yourself to see only Me, I will more and more reveal Myself. My Father and I have come and will come to you; the quickening and the light and the glory seen as My own. I will reveal to you the exactness of My Father, His infinite mercy and the wonder of His unveiled presence."

"There is no answer out there in the world today; neither is there an answer at a future time. There is no answer in the council of men, or in struggle, worry, warring, barricading or hiding. The answer is in Me, and I will show you the perfection that is Myself today and from the beginning; the same perfection that has always been. All things were made by Me and without Me was not anything made that was made. I created a perfect world and it is finished."

"The "Out There Appearance" is but a shadow created by the Adam man when he made himself as a god. It is not a world to be sorted and unscrambled by might or by power, but a new and living world full of the righteousness of God. The world holds nothing for My children, but heartache and toil. I have said, come unto Me and I will give you rest. What is this saying? It is asking you to set aside the uselessness and futility of the darkened shadow, and accept the place prepared where I am. It is in Me, and is always in order and harmony. The door is open, the river flowing, and I am alive forevermore as you. I am the very substance and revelation of the real, but I am only found walking above the shadows in Spirit and Truth. It's OK and wonderful to be in the world, and not of it. You are not subject to the beggarly elements today or ever, but are high and lifted up in Me,"

"Quietly and reverently separate yourself unto Me, the all, and listen. Realize I have given you all of Myself, and feel My love and strength, My abiding presence, My sheltering arms. Look into this awesome day of infinite salvation, and realize the King is come in you. Hear of My eternal rest and My Kingdom of righteousness that you are. Hear the shout of victory.”

“The flood of salvation is thus: I have prepared and I do not withhold any good thing whatsoever My children may ever need. You are taught of a Heaven where peace abides, love prevails, where there is no curse; where all is wonderful. I am that Heaven, and I am come to you in this very instant with all that I am. You know you are to have no other God beside Me. Now do you prefer a Heaven yet to come, to I, who am come? Would you attempt to serve Me, and still serve the appearance world? I know the answer is no because I have placed My fence around you and have given you a heart of love at your request. I have given you a mind to see and am herein notifying you that the floodgates are open for all to partake.”

“My commission still stands. Go forth and preach the good news that the Kingdom of God is within every man; that the very ground on which they walk is Holy, for all is new in the Kingdom. Therefore you shall know Me more greatly as I am. Everything is pure and beautiful as I am, and everything is Spirit Substance in this real world. Herein is the rest prepared for the ones that love Me; every man in his own order; for all shall know Me from the least to the greatest. As for you, you know Me now and walk as I am.”

Amen

*“You two are sent.
Speak My Word; not the word men say,
but what I have placed in you.”*
