The Departments Of The Heart

I felt it was necessary to visit the four departments of my heart. It was a needed trip, so I went there with a purpose; prepared but not with a pre-planned talk.

As I addressed the departments, I had these serious thoughts: “You have no right to fibrillate , or hesitate or rebel, for you are in the immediate presence of the Lord I look upon you, and I look into you, and I see only Spirit. I see you all four are real and you are the identical seed of your maker; the seed of God Himself. You are set in order and the order is love. The order is God; abundant and plenteous, unlimited LOVE.”

“You are not established to decrease or decline, but specifically to increase. You are given to undulate ever increasing Love; ever increasing!

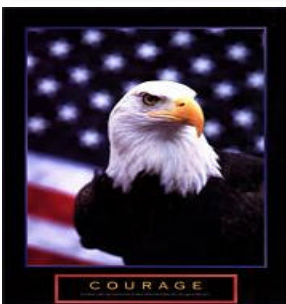

“The increase of your love, as you work hand in hand, department with department, is the showing of your increase of faith. Faith has it’s mission: Universes to explore, and so you may increase as was instilled in you from the beginning.”

“You need to know there is no separation between the departments, for they work as one. Therefore you know there is no division between yourself and the real for there is only ONE.”

“Who is the ONE? That’s I, that’s you; that’s every whisper of reality. That is the resurrected presence of the blessed unmeasured redemption; The Lord Jesus Christ Himself.” He is the one who’s right it is to live, the Spirit and very substance of you all.”

“Now friends, in your linked harmonious being, I have come in you, and I am the beginning and the ending of every tick of your existence. I am the strength and am not weakened, as some might expect; eternal and ever warming. I am that quickening for which you have heard, and I shall never be away for one moment.”

“I am come, the promise of the Father Himself, come in you. You have found Me; you have heard My Word, and I have confirmed I am all in all. I am reality; Body soul and Spirit made one. (Come in the flesh) There is nothing; not even a shadow outside of Myself, and you will no longer bow or yield your thought to any other; apparent or invisible.”

“I am here to stay; the oil and delight ; the center you are. You are always and forever new; alive as I am alive.”

“I have fulfilled the god of wrath, limitation and death, and put him to rest. Now you see Me; mercy, peace, joy, righteousness, holiness and all good. I am the love, the all new, in covenant with all four of you to the end I am.”

“Hallelujah to the Kingdom, all power, and all glory forever and forever and forever.” SEALED
