

See Righteousness - See Him

I'm in, I'm in. Oh God, I'm in.
I'm in the Kingdom.

He said, "Come unto Me, and I will give you rest." He wooed and loved and opened my eyes. He favored me with Himself, and I found Him everywhere; particularly in me and you.

Matt: 6:33 "Seek ye first the Kingdom of God and His righteousness and all these things shall be added unto you." ( A very familiar passage)

"I'm in", I wrote. I'm in the Kingdom; in the King's Dome; in the Crown of Righteousness. I have discovered that I am ONE in My God, and beside this, there is nothing else for which to hold my attention. Here in The Crown, I am complete and whole, as the glory of the Crown flows, as covering over me.

Now being in the Kingdom, for which I searched and longed, I asked myself, "What is righteousness, or rather where does righteousness come in, since I have found myself ONE with my Father and realize He is my righteousness? Why does the scripture ask us to seek The Kingdom and also His righteousness? ( Like they are two separate things ) A Question to be answered.

Now He is come in me and He is all in all of us; the free gift of Himself; the pure and only true expression of righteousness. Now obviously, we have the King, and He is everything. We look no farther nor for another. So how do we find righteousness if it is already in us? How does a Son become a Son?

Simple answer: the opening of our eyes unto righteousness is the opening of our eyes unto Him.

Many are able to give mercy, but few have discovered they are mercy. Many speak words of life, but few are aware they are Life. There is The Spirit dimension all around and within that is ours moment by moment as we call and as is needed. The Words we speak are the Words we are. The thoughts we think, are what we are. The Life we give is the Life we are. To know Him is Life eternal; Heaven in earth.

This is the day of That One, This One, The One; the day of the risen King, Lamb of God. This is the day My Father and I have taken up our abode in our own, and our own do wonders according as has been established from the beginning.

Righteous decisions, openings, doors of God plenty are in the hands of the able Son; the earth dweller. There is a harvesting NOW of that which God-man has not planted . The righteous are discovering I am God. Amen
