

Showers of Blessings

That we be appointed to LIFE - is wonderful.

Get under the shower, dear one! The rain is here, the great rain; Spirit without measure. A downpour of healing waters pours over the land, and upon the heads of men. Be swept away in the goodness and grace of the Father.

Direct the showers over all your close friends and loved ones, and then over all mankind. Let there be a flood of awakening and blessings for all.

Realize there is no escape from this flood of glory, as Grace and The Lord's Glory are ours. When the shower of blessings came over Peter, James and John, as the Word of the Lord, while they were toiling at fishing, their ship became filled with fish. The wonderful Word, the Lord Himself is the key.

Now the same blessing is come in the rain of the Spirit over all mankind, and without measure. If you hear this, you know you may cast your nets to receive all that He is, for the Former and the Latter Rain is come. It is Christ in you!

I call you wonderful. I call you friend. I see you bountiful and laden down with the goodness of the Lord. (It is not always stated, but the Lord Jesus Christ is always ready to give all that He is.) I sing a new song in your name.

You might as well rest all you redeemed law enforcers and tax collectors, because your work is ended. Peace has conquered the ends of the earth. There is a washing over the waters never before seen in such a scale. Waters now pour forth from above, below and within. You shall wonder at the marvel of their force as they uncover the new face of earth.

Look up bright faces, and be washed and inundated with the fullness of My great rain, for I have revealed my manifest Grace and Glory.

Healing waters, healing waters; this is not the time to dip water with a bucket. This is the time of the flood of life giving Spirit. This is the day of days, the endorsement of Jubilee. It is the revealing of Myself in the promise of your life.

Qualify in your own heart that I am in you, all that I am without measure. How great I am is yet to be seen, but what do you see now? I am a downpour of love, the free gift of freedom.

How great is My Freedom? Qualify it to yourself. How great is My love? Qualify it to yourself. How great is your ability to share? Qualify it to yourself. How great is God in you? Find out NOW. Do you need anything? Receive it. Do you want anything? Receive it. Peace, Joy, righteousness, understanding, wisdom, power; They are all yours because they are Me.

Hold out your cup and do not draw back. I am a good God, all good, all loving, and I have given Myself as you. I am your accountant, your doctor, your runner and your friend, and what a friend am I. I solve all questions to those who will turn within.

To man, I am the answer and to the Son of man, I am light. I dwell in all dimensions as rooms in My Father's house. I am the simple truth to those who ask, and a brother to all.

Call on Me dear one while I may be found for this is that day.

Amen
