

The Body of Christ

“Now you see Thomas. It is I, the One who loves you.”

“Let us carefully look into each other’s eyes as you learn of things you need to know.”

“As I reached into Your side and felt where the sword had pierced, I recognized: You are the same One, my Master, and surely we have been together right along.”

“It is I, Jesus, your friend, who has ministered with you and abode with you along the shores and across the land. I have held you in highest esteem, as My friend and disciple.”

“Now I have lifted you into My Father, as you will come to know, and seated you at His right hand. I have opened the great door between the two worlds of your mind, and placed you in fellowship with His all encompassing Light.”

“This body that you now behold and touch is the only begotten . I am My Father’s Son; His expressed image in earth. I am the One who is risen and Am the righteousness of all, the truth of all, THE BODY OF ALL. I am the all in all , the all of all and the all as all. I am the Kingdom come, the will of the Father. I am the promise fulfilled, the arisen new Heaven and Earth. Righteousness is in all the earth and My body is it’s testimony. My body shall be seen and discerned as the holy mountain of earth.”

“I shall never deny Myself, and shall reveal Myself to all men, for I am the great free gift of righteousness, GRACE now come in this second appearing.”

Now let it be said that there is a quick work, cut short in righteousness. There is a trumpet sounding in the ears of men that TIME SHALL BE NO MORE. The great second appearing of the Lord Jesus Christ, was witnessed by our brother, Thomas and the other disciples and friends of Jesus, and witnessed again on the Day of Pentecost. In this second appearance, He came without sin expressing salvation, and freedom from condemnation. The second appearance was in His immortal state while His first appearance was His earthly mission unto men.

Earthly time is no more, for we have entered the great day of the exalted Lord Jesus Christ, the day men cannot earn, but the great free gift day of His eternal, abiding presence. We have been translated into the all new risen Body of Christ, and have been reconciled unto the glorious living room of the Father.

We are asked to worship only one God, not a God divided; but a God of all encompassing glory. There is an ever present God in us, honoring His only begotten Son. The Son expresses as us without sin or condemnation; without fear or separation; without lack or unbelief. As was said previously, the ONE Who is all in all cannot deny Himself, and He is awake in His own. He is the all of us and is worthy to be praised.

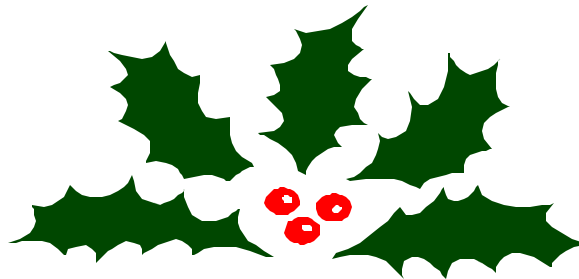

Let us be encouraged to receive the greatness of Him in salvation, and to open to His ever present leading and being. There is none beside Him, the Father expressing as the Son, for He has led captivity captive and opened the wonders of the Kingdom . Let all see they are wrapped in the train of His righteousness.

Amen gardenborn@arn.net

Merry Christmas 2001

Love from Jim and

Darling Melba