

I do not require My bride to dwell in the streets of torment, for she is too pure to even look upon them. I have given her the face of an all new world to behold, and it is I. She is honeymooning with me in ecstasy. I Am her bright and shining sent ONE;. Her eye is so filled with My light, she is walking above the street of gold.

It's OK as I said, where you have been. You have not known the length and breadth of your God. Today I pour the waters of My love over you, dear One. Today, I pulled back the curtain of your seeing, again.

TODAY, ENTER INTO THE REST, OF FOREVER.

My magnificent appearing in you, My people is the fulfillment of righteousness. I Am here to open your eyes to My whole new creation; here to open you to Myself, My way, My truth, My life. I have come to release you from the hope of tomorrow, and unveil the reality of the VERY NOW.

To be in part, no matter how much you have changed or how much you have awakened, is still to be in part. No matter how great the prophet, how many miracles have been performed through my gifts, or how much you are respected by men, is still to be in part. My Son is My glory and I will not share My glory with any man. My Son, is become all in all. He is full of glory and righteousness and is on display as you receive Him.

He is everywhere seen, with all things under his feet. Even the ground on which He walks is holy and quickened. The angel messengers are constantly proclaiming His love and mercy; constantly heralding peace on earth, good will toward men.

I have released you from the cry for righteousness, and have placed you in a booth, sanctified unto Me, fulfilled and made whole. Complete, you are, ALL YOU WHO ARE PRIVILEGED TO READ THESE WORDS, and all those who were lost. Your mercy will see for them and will see them in this new creation. I have given you the power to see them through.

See not through your Brother, But See your Brother through!

I say, "hear the music of Heaven; feel the warmth of My breath. Give yourself to My glory within. Wait no longer for an extended hope. Declare My

I HAVE ANSWERED THROUGH MY SON

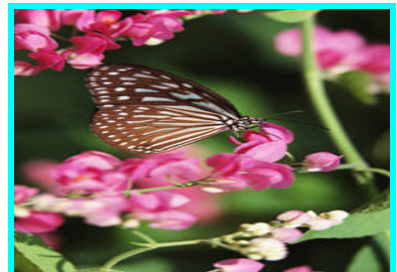

You hungered and thirsted for righteousness and longed to be correct, holy and true. You may consider that you did not envision how extensive My righteousness is; the harmony of every breath, every thought, of every beat of your heart; of every sound and every touch throughout all creation, and in every man. I, only Am that righteousness. Men have called and demanded it, not knowing that I Am come. Nevertheless, you have been heard.

My City (come down); My is well established and is far greater than the mind of men can know.

I have poured out My grace without measure; My love for each of you in My Son is without limits or without end. No lion nor fowl nor unclean thing can touch nor be in the sight of that which is My own. Neither has it ever been. Mortal man does not share in my Kingdom.

I have shinned on a man, My caused Him to rise from sleep into your midst. I have not exalted any man, but have abased, for in My magnificent appearing, no proud or boastful shall be seen. You have wondered about an outpouring of My power. There shall be none, for in My City all things are in order. I Am not moving men into a city. The City is already come down to men. There are no sick or lame or downtrodden. There is no pastor or prophet or miracle worker. There is only peace, joy and righteousness in the midst of My abundant love. My City is yours; it is at hand, as I have declared long ago; always at hand. It is within each of you; it is here. I withhold no good thing from My own. I have brought you into my own house; a finished work, a finished people. You have my mind, and my grace. You have My mercy and My body. You are My love and you are filled with My love. I have not placed any man

If men do not see Me in the flesh, they may ask and I shall be seen. For I Am gleaming righteousness. I cause your eyes to see the perfect Kingdom, and your heart to abide in it. My great promise is everlasting life and it is here for you to know. I have done a quick work and cut it short in righteousness; righteousness being My name and My seal. Yes, I have sealed you and now you shall hear and know it. The trumpet has sounded, and the dead in Christ are risen. They are here amongst us pointing the way. The melody of life is singing and the angels are rejoicing; all because I Am risen in your hearts. I Am an open unlimited door into gladness. Think not you need to open it for I do not share this glory with any, in any measure. but place your heart against the wheel of My great glory, and My presence, and be changed by the renewing of your mind. It is My day, everlasting, and time shall be no more. Never judge again by what

Your vision will change as you receive He who is my WORD. You don't have to move mountains for I have made all things NEW. Let me be God, as I AM. Just whisper the longing of your heart for I hear well. "Come in, come in" I say. ***

MY LOVE COVERS ALL

It's OK. My grace covers you when you don't understand. I know what man has been presenting as the truth. If you're waiting on my appearing, you might recall that today is the day of salvation. You might hear this trumpet messenger or you may you say to your children: "Jesus is in your hearts." I in you, Am the ONE you have longed for; the same and only ONE. I in you AM the great ONE that stood on the shores of Galilee. I Am in your heart. "Be thou made whole", I said, and today I say to you, "Be thou made whole. Stand, stand up, stand still. Listen and know that I, in You; JESUS, AM GOD. I AM GOD." Do not look into the pit of darkness; neither look into the fires of torment. If you desire you may see torment, but not to my own. No, my own have a single eye; an eye completely filled with peace, joy and righteousness. My own have been taken away into the heavenlies. I have come as a thief in the night and have caught them away with my breath into an all NEW CREATION. They are lifted at My right hand just as I Am My Word is life to you, and I
