

The Mantle

I humbly lay at the foot of the cross of my Savior as His blood became the mantel of my righteousness. Clearly I understood the meaning of His words, "Unless you drink My blood and eat My flesh, you have no part with Me.

As His blood flowed over me, I realized the truth of baptism, and was made aware that His very blood is the Holy Ghost; the power of the resurrection.

Suddenly I knew that to eat His flesh is not only the power, but the truth of the resurrection, the reality of immortality. The blood that poured over me became the blood within me. We are one blood.

And so I arose in the resurrection as The Only Begotten; One with Him..

I lifted my cross and found strength in the instant. I was whisked away in the ever present NOW of His being. I realize the now of His being is I Am. It is I, no more than He is, no less than He is. I am. I bow in adoration; the reconciliation in Father.

Now I understand that to eat of His flesh is the same as living by every word that proceeds from the voice of the Father. Truly I live on that divine manna of this hour.

My mantle is impenetrable and all inclusive in Thee Father, and I stand.

Dear reader, I stand in your shoes you know, for we are one. Feel the quickening? In your shoes, I stand. Hallelujah we are risen, never again to be bound to the earth as simple earth creatures. I am Holy in your shoes beloved; quick and alive; sent and received in the clouds of glory. Will you take a deep breath of Heaven? Will you receive My very presence? Will you shine forth morning star?

In you, I am a whirlwind of inspiration and peace beyond understanding. Think of it, "Peace beyond understanding." Consider this My Holy One: Every thing I am is beyond understanding or definition. Understanding is participating in the past, and comes by measure, but I'm speaking to you without measure; continuously being Now. I am peace and power beyond understanding and am past finding out. I am the seal of this moment. In a loud voice, I say, "Come forth and walk in My shoes as Me!

PERSPECTIVE

David destroyed the pride and silenced the army of the Philistine's with a single rock; Jesus

Daniel covenanted with the Lord and the mouths of the lions were shut.

It is so very comforting to know that the mouth of the lion is shut, NOW and forever; the mantle of the Lord being over us.

The three Hebrew children declared the name of the Lord and walked out of the fire without harm. (unchanged, still their divine selves, and so have we as we are in this world.)

The mouth of the lion is shut!
You are FREE unto the Lord from every limitation.

"Come unto Me and I will give you rest." "Fear thou not, for I am with thee." To live in the new creation, ("Behold I make all things new.") is to know you are Spirit Substance. Spirit is what you are NOW, and have always been. (There is nothing outside of God, or beside God.) This is the reality of the Kingdom of God that Jesus declared was at hand, and that we later came to know, is within. Jesus said, "I shall be in you," and now we know He is. You are not mortal flesh and blood that you should perish, for that which is perishable has passed away. You now know that He who is perfect is come. The quickening that He is, has appeared.

You see through the glass clearly now, My living creature, and you know you are all

Spirit; HOLY SPIRIT. "I am the Lord thy God, and beside Me there is no other."

You are a transparent, open book.

and be drawn into My place of rest,
where no unclean appearance or thing exists. At last, you may know you are welcomed into My home where I abide,
and you rest in Me.

Spirit Reality

The bible stories we all have read and herein mentioned clearly illustrate the certain fact that it positively is not necessary to wait for a future time to be in the full presence of the Lord. The fullness of the Father is always in us, the very resurrection power. We have risen and are seeing the resurrection daily and hourly in this moment. We who can see, see the light of salvation over all men.

STOP now in the midst of what you are doing and bow before the Lord Jesus Christ, for His awakening in you.

The army of the Lord is round about, and the mercy of salvation's hand has touched the cry of your heart.

Lay your head on My bosom child of Divinity, for I am with you and am in you.
