

The Price of Imagination

It is the price of imaging idols, or false ideals.

Wondering about a title for this writing; one of the above or I think this:

Will you gather your loved ones to sing?

The Price of Looking Upon Appearance

“JESUS PAID IT ALL
ALL TO HIM I OWE
JESUS PAID THE RANSOM FULL
HE WASHED ME WHITE AS SNOW.”

There is an amazing price that has been paid by all we who have not recognized that “Jesus Paid it All.” It is the price of separation - of waiting for the appearance of another greater than the one in our hearts. It is the denial of “So great salvation”, as spoken by our brother Paul.

To lay your head upon the bosom of Jesus and be engulfed in His billowing love is the end of the world we have known. It is the returning to our first love, the King and His Kingdom. No longer do you see the ugly of the appearance world, your eye being too pure to behold it, but you see Him. You find Him as He is, just ONE. (And only) You find He is everything; the promise, your jubilee, the resurrection, the substance of all that is needed.

“When you come in Me dear one, we are caught away in the all new. We are in the place where we have no father or mother, and we recognize we have always been.”

“This is NOW ; the now that I am. I have called, you have answered. I have brought you to the prepared place; Heaven if you like, My Self. You find yourself in a cloak of glory, with a ring of perfection; seated with Me in the great living room of the Father.”

“What do you see, My Son?”

“I see a garden of peace. I see flakes of gold and lambs with lions. I see holiness as clouds of blue and silver, and I recognize the finished Kingdom. This is the place congregations have described all my life. I see all men as one.”

“Who is your overseer”, He asked?

“I am.” I recognize the freedom within because I am ONE.”

“Who is your teacher ,” He asked?

“I am.”

“You have come to Me, but will you describe where you have been?”

“I have been out there in the fight, trying to be where I already am. I’ve been trying to organize the unorganized; trying to repeat that which has already been done by You. But Father, I care so much.”

“More than I?” Now you find you have been the responsible one, obligated to you. You find you are as I am; come to sit at the right hand of the Father with ALL THINGS UNDER YOUR FEET. No longer do you need to toil either in the natural or in the Spirit; neither in mind or in strength. You are a forerunner come home.”

“Now you know what the greater works are; the predicted greater works. You seat yourself at the right hand of the Father with all things under your feet, knowing all is finished. You have the privilege of reconciling all the world in the moment of NOW, which I am.”

Quote: “For we which have believed do enter into rest, as He said, “As I have sworn in My wrath, if they shall enter into My rest; although the works were finished from the foundation of the world.”

The greater works are a work of faith, which is trust, the greatest faith of all. Thrust in the name, the signature of our King. All work is cut short in the awesome righteousness of His presence, for when He who is perfect is come, he who is in part dissipates in a mist of glory.
