

The Blood Is Everything

It was yesterday when I was given to write:

“The Blood of The Lamb is Become a Blanket of Pure Golden Light”

That thought just humbles me into infinity, to the place
of non-existence;
even before all
things were created
in Him.

It brings me to the vastness
of our Father; where there is no night or limited
vision.

Truly I hold you close today my brothers and sisters in the center of this great room of His glory.
We huddle together in awe
before the hues of colors of life in Him.

“I love you” rings and rings and rings, as the blessing of the Father echoes beyond and beyond. Don’t you hear “Holy, holy holy, Lord God almighty?”

This center we have found is like being in the tone of a magnificent organ. I chord to you and to all that need love; the chord of being, the chord of living, the chord of giving of ourselves.

Look at your precious hands, eternally covered with the righteousness of His blood. Will you touch someone with these pure and righteous hands? Will you touch me, bless me, hold me?

When was your touch blessed in this blood? Was it before the foundation of the world? Was it once in the end of the world? Was it at the cross of Calvary? Was it when you awakened in Christ? It doesn't matter, does it, now that you have this touch, this holy touch? It's just Him.

Salvation is revealing her power and beauty; freshly plowed ground, a beautiful covering of snow, a crown of infinite glory, the King in all His splendor.

A PRAYER

Thank you Lord, that now that you have appeared, you have made us to know, you are everything, whatsoever we could ask or think. Thank you that the precious Holy Spirit has revealed His Face, and it's you in us. The Word has become Flesh. Thank you that in your appearing, you present us with all things made new. Thy Kingdom come is you. Thank you that the seal of your precious blood has awakened us as you, and that you have opened our eyes to know that the power of resurrection is truly in the Blood of The Lamb and the acknowledgment of our testimony.

Thank you that it is by My Spirit, sayeth the Lord.
