

A Direct Word Timely Said

You are coming against an unspoken line of demarcation, as you come against the freedom of America. You are opening a war against yourself.

The end result is a calamitous rout and the fall of many kingdoms. You are notified, you are exposing the foundation of your very existence, and these foundations are being unraveled. There is an unlacing of all you hold dear, and you shall see the fall of a mountain you have worshiped for centuries.

We welcome you as brothers with love and peace, but you cannot see it; so here you come, hurdling yourself to destruction.

It is not widely publicized (you will come) but there is a foregone conclusion. The Lion of The Tribe of Judah has established a no fly zone that you dare not cross. It is apparent that you must try your wings against freedom, and as you do, you will see your precious women and children set free into the glorious liberty of the Son of God.

You're attempting to spread your fallen gospel too far, but it is the Christ's time for your gospel to be tried. You have overstepped the power of your fallen idol.

Now hear me brothers; why deny peace? There is peace in the very Holy Ghost you have denied; and yet He extends His grace and His love even in this very precipitous hour.

Therefore, this is the Word of The Lord Jesus Christ to you. (A careful and explicit Word of caution) You have exposed the back of your god and he is vulnerable. You do not know what you have challenged. You do not know freedom is the eternal, and love is the body of Christ. I repeat, "You are not aware of the eternal unspoken line of demarcation."

TODAY IT IS PROCLAIMED AND JUSTLY SPOKEN. WE PRAY FOR YOU.

Oh Church, My lovely bride: I have hidden you in the cleft of the rock. Your King of Glory is come.

Stand forth Son of the New Day for your King has shaken off His grave clothes.

Reality is awakened fully alive. Amen gardenborn@arn.net
