

ALL SHALL LIVE WHERE THE RIVER COMES...

The word ego when used, usually speaks of the human mind with its usual; programming concerning dual consciousness. The opposite of the dual mind or human mentality would then be Cosmic Consciousness better known by many as the mind of Christ. This Cosmic Mind witnesses to my heart that I as soul was created long before the earth was planned, and that which I am, also from of old and from everlasting.

I can know the mysteries of the universe. Without Love.

I can have faith to move mountains. Without Love.

I can cast out devils. Without Love.

I can heal the sick. Without Love.

I can die for the cause of my religion. Without Love.

I cannot however enter the reality of the kingdom that is here and now without it.

Love is the highest mountain peak, the zenith of my goal.

Love is the very last thing that will ever possess my eternal soul.

Love is kind.

Love is the opposite of divisiveness.

Love is who I am at the end of the journey.

Love is who I am now, outside this illusion. When I awaken fully, my soul will have wedded spirit and the whole creation will be my mirror.

The wedding feast is now in progress. Come and dine.

“I am the bread of life, he that eats me, shall live by me”

The real breaking of the bread of life is, I share my Christ with you and you share yours with me. As the river of water of life flows between us Christ will appear in his Body to be Glorified.[Expressed] and *“All shall live where the river comes.”
