

I AM THE DREAMER...

The carnal/ego mind is that of the ego driven man. This is the man who is disconnected from his heart/spirit. The overpowering of the heart/spirit was a necessary thing for was this not part of the divine plan there would be no expansion of all that is, there would have been no forgetting. The raw/un-renewed or carnal mind of man was key in the divine plan in the game we are playing. When speaking of the “carnal mind” we are speaking of the grey matter between mans ears called the brain.

This is the part of the man that is programmed by his five senses. This is that which has never existed before birth. That is the reason why man cannot remember any pre-existence. That is because the carnal man with his three dimensional mind had not existed before birth. That which is mans heart/spirit is eternal and it is the ONE that cannot be defined, the ONE that I AM that was before time or anything was in existence but the IAM that IAM. In order to play the great cosmic game I had to forget everything.

And so my desire created the carnal man with his carnal mind that never existed before the ONE Consciousness who devised it as a way to play the game and win at the end of the day. This that we know as Life, this that we are now engaged in, is the divine dream of forgetfulness. Man losing contact with his true center was the plan. God is the dreamer as zero has so well said. There are dreams within dreams within dreams and that which I AM is having them all. There’s a saying that says as above so below and whatever happens in the Macrocosm happens also in the microcosm.

As in a lucid dream the dreamer realizes he is dreaming. This realization creates the understanding that he can control the dream. We have been given total dominion of this dream called earth life. We have not taken it. Obviously this is due to the fact that we have yet to become lucid/aware/awake. Well fasten your seatbelts and grab hold of your hat
