

THE GOD WHO HIDES HIMSELF...

Paul wrote that we have this treasure in earthen vessels. The earthen vessel will often feel vulnerable. That is normal and to be expected. There are times when I become overwhelmed with something that I have attracted into my life. That's ok, and that's when I in a weak moment might cry out to that which created me and say...

"Lord, I believe, help thou mine unbelief."* The valleys are good. If it weren't for the valleys, we could not truly know the experience of the mountain top. The visitations of his grace {that I have been made aware of} have been very few for many years now. God must dry out the wheat. The ups are for the downs and the downs are for the ups. The negative is for the positive.

"Verily thou art a God that hides thyself oh God of Israel"
